Colouring-in Competition

Children can pick up an entry form at any branch of Cairns Libraries from Monday 26th of May and return it by Friday 6th of June to take part in a colouring-in competition.

Five family passes are available to win for the 5.30pm performance of Milli, Jack and the Dancing Cat at the Cairns Civic Theatre on Thursday 19th of June. Fifty copies of the picture book are also up for grabs. Don't miss out!

National Simultaneous Storytime

National Simultaneous Storytime will be held on Wed 21st of May at 11.00pm. Amanda Graham's classic picture book Arthur will be heard by hundreds of children across Australia. Classes are welcome to book into storytimes at City Library, Earlville Library and Smithfield Library. Stories will be followed by a craft activity.

Mark Svendsen Visits in July

Cairns Libraries will be hosting a visit in June from Mark Svendsen, highly acclaimed author for children and young adults. Many of Mark's junior and young adult fiction have been notable books in the Children's Book Council of Australia awards. He also writes poetry, plays, lyrics, reviews and adult novels. Mark will be available to visit your school on Tues 29th and Wed 30th of July.

Sessions run for 1 hour and can accommodate Years 4 to 12. For information about Mark and his books, visit <http://www.marksvendsen.com/>.

Teen Book Club

The Teen Book Club at Smithfield Library begins on Wed 27th of February at 4.00pm and will run every fourth Wednesday of the month. Young people from 12 to 16 years are welcome to join the group for books, chat and snacks. They will have the chance to borrow the latest fiction first, chat about books, have their say on what the libraries should offer, and help with Cairns Libraries' very first newsletter for young people!

Shakespeare at the City Library

As part of Festival Cairns, Cairns Libraries will be presenting Shakespeare in the Library at the Cairns City Library meeting room from Thurs 28th until Sat 30th August 2008.

Shake & Stir Theatre Company, the newest and one of the most popular youth theatre companies in South East Queensland, will be presenting a number of theatre workshops which aim to give participants a fresh approach to working with the works of William Shakespeare in a contemporary and creatively unrestricted manner. Shake & Stir workshop leaders will direct participants through a range of Shakespeare related activities and exercises including individual/group discussions and performances – both rehearsed and impromptu.

Year 8 to 12 classes are welcome to book into half day workshops on Thurs 28th and Fri 29th of August. More details will be released soon.

A fitting climax to the workshops will be a performance of many of Shakespeare's romantic scenes including excerpts from Romeo and Juliet. This performance will be held in the beautiful, historic Cairns City Library on Friday 29th August 2008 commencing at 7.30pm.

Free Online Tutoring for Students

School students can now receive free tutoring help online at their library or home, through an innovative new service just introduced by Cairns Libraries. Yourtutor connects Year 4 to 12 students to qualified, expert tutors online for one-to-one help with homework, assignments, and exam preparation in core subjects.

The service is available 4-8pm, Monday to Friday from either library or home computers. For secure and free access, library members simply log on to Cairns Libraries website www.cairnslibrary.com.au, click on the Yourtutor link and enter their library card number to access. If accessing from home, please be aware that you may need to download the necessary free software.
